Upstairs Meeting Room

Moderated by Yvette Lopez Brooks, Executive Director of Your Future is Our Business and SCPL's Iván Llamas. Speakers include:

Renee Golder is the Principal at Bay View at Bay View and currently serving in the city council of Santa Cruz.

Elizabeth Shaw has taught all over the county, worked in IT Networking and Operations, and a passion for social justice in education.

Shelby Graham has a 35-year career as an arts educator, curator, and photographer and specializes in alternative and experimental photography with innovative curatorial practice.

Michelle Chao has been a faculty member of the Early Childhood Education program at Cabrillo College since 2001. She has worked as a bilingual kindergarten teacher, and specializes in anti-bias/social justice/anti-racist approaches with young children.

The event is part of the Santa Cruz Workforce Collaborative. The Collaborative offers a holistic approach to job-seekers by bringing together information about local workforce programs in the library's Navigation Center and providing bilingual, 1-on-1, and workshop-based support to individuals in navigating the career development process.

This event was supported in whole or in part by the U.S. Institute of Museum and Library Services under the provisions of the Library Services and Technology Act, administered in California by the State Librarian.
