

NOVEMBER

NATIVE AMERICAN HERITAGE MONTH

November is a time to celebrate the rich diversity of cultures, traditions, and histories of Native peoples and to honor their significant contributions. Native American Heritage Month also provides an opportunity to foster understanding and build awareness of tribal communities, their unique challenges—both past and present—and the resilience and strength of Native peoples in overcoming these challenges.

CELEBRATE NATIVE AMERICAN HERITAGE MONTH

Rock Your Mocs

In this happy, vibrant tribute to Rock Your Mocs Day, observed yearly on November 15, author Laurel Goodluck (Mandan, Hidatsa, and Tsimshian) and artist Madelyn Goodnight (Chickasaw) celebrate the joy and power of wearing moccasins

Fry Bread: A Native American Family Story

Told in lively and powerful verse by debut author Kevin Noble Maillard, Fry Bread is an evocative depiction of a modern Native American family, vibrantly illustrated by Pura Belpre Award winner and Caldecott Honoree Juana Martinez-Neal.

Festiva the Lab visited our Capitola Branch for a Tales to Tails reading session with Zenha and Lucia. She loved the stories and pettings.

Tales to Tails takes place at several of our branches; see the previous page for details.
