

Streaming Video

at Santa Cruz Public Libraries

Using a computer or device with a high-speed Internet connection, you can stream videos from any location.

	 Powered by FILMS ON DEMAND		 Powered By IndieFlix
Do I need to create an account?	No account needed to view. Creating an account allows creation of playlists and favorites.	Yes, you'll create a custom login and password.	Yes. You can use an RBDigital account if you have one.	Sign in with your library card number and password.
Is there an app?	No app available. Streaming is through your device's browser.	Yes, an app is available for iOS and Android, and Kindle Fire HDX.	No mobile app available. Streaming is through your device's browser. Also available on Roku, xBox, and Apple TV via Apple devices.	No mobile app available for library subscriptions. Streaming is through your device's browser. Viewing through Chromecast or Apple TV is supported.
What about availability?	All film segments are always available. No limit on number of videos per month.	All titles are always available. There is a limit of 10 per month per user.	All titles are always available. No limit on number of videos per month.	All titles are always available. No limit on number of videos per month.
What are the content highlights?	Featured producers include American Experience, PBS, Ken Burns, National Geographic, Rick Steves' Europe, and Inside Science.	Thousands of recent movies, television shows, music albums, graphic novels, and audiobooks.	Films from major festivals all over the world, including Sundance, Cannes, Tribeca, and more.	Opera, ballet, jazz, world music, documentaries, and live events.

