

eAudiobooks

at Santa Cruz Public Libraries

A variety of eAudiobooks are available to borrow from SCPL through the following providers:

Do I need to create an account?	No, all you need is your library card number. An account is optional if using the OverDrive app.	Yes, you'll create a custom login and password.	No, you'll use your library card number and password.	Yes, you'll create a custom login and password.
What devices are compatible?	Most digital audio players, smartphones, tablets, and computers.	iOS, Android, Kindle Fire HDX, and most computers.	Most smartphones, tablets, and computers.	Most digital audio players, smartphones, tablets, and computers.
Is there an app?	Yes, there are two apps available: OverDrive and Libby.	Yes.	Yes.	Yes.
What about availability?	One copy, one user model. Many titles are available. There is a limit of 8 per borrower at a time.	Always available. There is a limit of 8 per month per user (includes video, books, and music).	One copy, one user model. Many titles are available. There is a limit of 10 per borrower at a time.	Most are always available. A small subset of newer titles are one copy, one user. There is a limit of 15 per borrower at a time.
What are the content highlights?	New and popular adult, teen, and children's fiction and nonfiction. Includes some Read-Along titles (ebooks with professional narration).	New and popular adult, teen, and children's fiction and nonfiction.	New and popular adult, teen, and children's fiction and nonfiction.	Best-selling titles from Recorded Books, including the Great Courses, and Pimsleur language courses.

