

eBooks

at Santa Cruz Public Libraries

A variety of ebooks are available to borrow from SCPL through the following providers:

Do I need to create an account?	No, all you need is your library card number. An account is optional if using the OverDrive app.	Yes, you'll create a custom login and password.	No, you'll use your library card number and password.	No, you'll use your library card number and password.
What devices are compatible?	iOS, Android, Kindles, Nooks, Kobo readers, Chromebooks, Windows computers, and Macs.	iOS, Android, Kindle Fire HDX, and most computers.	iOS, Android, PCs, Nook Tablet, Macs, and Kindle Fire.	iOS and Android through the Bluefire Reader app. Windows computers and Macs.
Is there an app?	Yes.	Yes.	Yes.	No enki app, though the Bluefire Reader app supports ebooks from enki.
What about availability?	One copy, one user model. Many titles are available. There is a limit of 8 per borrower at a time.	Always available. There is a limit of 8 per month per borrower (includes video, books, and music).	One copy, one user model. Many titles are available. There is a limit of 10 per borrower at a time.	One copy, one user model. Many books are available. There is a limit of 20 per borrower at a time.
What are the content highlights?	New and popular adult, teen, and children's fiction and nonfiction.	New and popular adult, teen, and children's fiction. Includes a huge collection of comics and graphic novels.	New and popular adult, teen, and children's fiction and nonfiction.	University of California Press, Encyclopaedia Britannica, Workman Press, and many others.

