Best Books of 2017! Librarian's Picks

All the Birds in the Sky by Charlie Jane Anders

Childhood friends, one an engineering genius and one a witch, work to repair the world's ever-growing ailments. Something ancient brings them together to either save the world, or plunge it into a new dark ages.

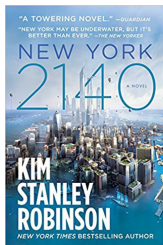

The Changeling by Victor Lavalle

A haunting tale of a man's search for his wife and child after the wife's uncharacteristically violent act.

Exit West by Moshin Hamid

A love story set against the backdrop of world issues, in this case migration and civil war. Two people meet and begin a new love affair just as they invent a new life at the same time.

New York 2140 by Kim Stanley Robinson

In an eerily possible future where sea level has risen and finances are extended beyond belief, an unlikely cast of characters make real changes that challenge centuries of human stupidity.
